

He's The Whole Package

Ladies: this sounds too good to be true, but he is the real deal! This successful, self-made, good looking family man is looking for an equal partner to share his life and eventual early retirement.

Confident, sincere and easy-going, he's seeking an effortlessly elegant, intelligent woman, 40-45 who enjoys travel, boating, architecture and design, and a little good-natured competition. Excellent conversational skills a must!
